Scripture Quote

“When the foundations are being destroyed, what can the righteous do... his eyelids test the children of man. The upright shall behold his face.”

Psalms 11:3-4, 12

Historical Quote

“In my view, the Christian religion is the most important and one of the first things in which all children, under a free government ought to be instructed.. No truth is more evident to my mind than that the Christian religion must be the basis of any government intended to secure the rights and privileges of a free people.” Noah Webster 1828

Parent Quote

“Kailee has developed a great deal spiritually. It is evident that when she prays it is coming from her heart, as well as a deeper level of understanding. She even quotes scriptures in her prayers! Kailee’s Spirit-man is definitely increasing!”

First Things First

We are intentional in our unrelentless pursuit of the Presence of God at The Samuel School. Daily we seek His face and as James 4:8 declares, when we draw near to Him He draws near to us! Though he ruled a kingdom and had vast power and resources at his disposal, King David in wisdom declared that this is the one thing worth desiring, the one thing worth seeking after. Like David, as a community of believers, our persistent passion is to behold the beauty of the Lord and to inquire of Him.

Beauty in the Beholding

When children behold the beauty of the Lord they become like Him. Hearts become tenderized to love. Anxiety and negative emotions are displaced. The anointing of the Holy Spirit moves in, inhabiting the praises of His people. God’s promise is that He will make us joyful in the house of prayer (Isaiah 56:7). It is

Principle Approach® Instruction

"For what purpose did You create me God?" the child asks. In a Principle Approach education this is the underlying motivation that drives instructional strategy. It is nothing less than a holy inquiry into the purpose of all creation. Every academic subject has a Providential purpose and our job as educators is to explore this purpose with our students. We want to unlock the mind of Christ with regard to His purpose for bringing all things into being.

It is the glory of God to conceal a matter; to search out a matter is the glory of kings. Proverbs 25:2

When children witness adults, including teachers, honoring the activity of the Holy Spirit, they learn how to discern His ways in action. Opportunities for seeds of faith to be accepted at the heart level are in deed opportunities not to be taken for granted. May God help us to be like wise farmers who sow abundantly so the Holy Spirit may one day reap abundantly.

His joy which makes children feel strong, from the inside out.

Holy Spirit provides Biblical edification at every level: physical healing occurs, fears are displaced, God's love is affirmed in the heart of the believer, and our identity of who we are in Christ can be realized. But rather than the self being actualized, as secular psychology promotes, our Christian identity is actualized through the revelation of God's Word. Children are caught up in the truth of their identity in Christ; past, present, and future. As Matthew 6:33 further confirms, when we seek the Kingdom of God first, everything else is added unto us.

Parent Talk

It has been a joy to see our daughter prosper and mature at The Samuel School. The change in her from the beginning of the school year until the end is a tremendous outworking of God's faithfulness. Our daughter has grown intellectually and academically, but also emotionally and spiritually in terms of self-control and healthy interaction with others. What a delight to pick her up from school and hear all that she's learned, especially her thoughts on God. We're so thankful for the caring staff, the vision of the director, and most of all the Holy Spirit's work in her, which is nurtured by the values of The Samuel School.
